Columbia University in the City of New York
Department of Statistics

Lecturer in Discipline: Starting Fall 2023

Description: The Department of Statistics invites applications for multiple positions at the rank of Lecturer in Discipline that begins July 1, 2023. These are full-time appointments with multi-year renewals contingent on successful reviews. These positions will contribute to the Departmental educational mission at the undergraduate and masters level.

Lecturers in Discipline are officers in the University who meet a programmatic need for instruction in specialized fields. The selected candidates will be expected to teach up to 3 courses per semester. A Ph.D. in Statistics or related field by the date of appointment and a commitment to high-quality teaching at both the undergraduate and MA levels in Statistics and/or Probability are required. Candidates will be expected to participate in the full gamut of statistics education including curriculum improvement, modifying and developing courses, and exploring new strategies for the teaching of statistics.

The Department currently consists of 38 faculty members, 55 PhD students, and over 300 MA students. The Department has been expanding rapidly and, like the University itself, is an extraordinarily vibrant academic community. We are especially interested in candidates who through their research, teaching and/or service will contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community. Women and minorities are especially encouraged to apply. For further information about the Department and our programs, please go to our webpage at: http://www.stat.columbia.edu

Qualifications: A Ph.D. in Statistics or related field by the date of appointment and a commitment to high-quality teaching.

Application Instructions: All applications must be submitted through Columbia's online Academic Search and Recruiting portal (ASR) http://apply.interfolio.com/115313 and must include the following materials: cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, research statement, evidence of teaching effectiveness (teaching evaluations), a sample of course syllabus and the names of 3 references, who will be asked to upload letters of recommendation on their behalf.

Inquiries may be made to dk@stat.columbia.edu

Review of applications begins on February 1, 2023 and will continue until the positions are filled.
